Project Introductory cum planning meeting of Child Rights in Rajasthan

The Project Introductory cum planning meeting of Child Rights in Rajasthan was organised at Hotel Krishna, Sajjangarh block, Banswara on 29 Nov, 2018.

Dr Seema Joshi, Member, Rajasthan State Commission for Protection of Child Rights, Mr. Madusudan Sharma, Member, Child Welfare Committee. Mrs Sharda Labana, Child Development Project Officer, Banswara, 03 Sarpunch, Ward members, representative from Sadguru foundation, Suraksha mitr, Panchyats. Community Members were the main guests. Gauhar Mahmood, Assistant Director, gave a welcome speech to guests with offering garlands

In opening remark Mr George Cheriyan briefed about the organisation, and shared statistics related to child labours in India perspective.

Dr Seema Joshi, Chief Guest has inaugurated CUTS office in Sajjangarh, Banswara and after she joined the project introductory meeting where she interacted with participants and expressed to extent support in project to make Child Labour Free District.

Mr Om Prakash Arya, Programme Manager, Save the Children told about the aim of the project are as to activate and strengthen Panchyat Level Chile Protection Committees and develop the child protection workforce at the block and district level through competency based trainings for a strong government system that will work towards preventing child labour and migration and also monitor other child right issues

Ms. Sharda Labana, CDPO shared various departmental schemes which to be linked with child rights project.

Mr Aradhya Gour. Project Manager highlighted about the project objectives, plan of activities and expected outcomes through Power point presentation.

Ms. Pyari Damor, Mr Prakash Damor, Mr. Champalal Garasia, Mr. Ratan Singh, all Sarpanch from Panchayat Samiti said will extent support in project to make Sajjangarh and Gangadtalai block child labour free.

Mr. Jawan Singh, Coordinator, RSLDC said will help to family those are interested to get livelihood training.

Amardeep Singh, Sr, Programme Officer, CUTS given vote of thanks while Madan Giri convener of the event. Total 45 persons attended the event.