

Artificial Jewelry Making Training

Artificial Jewelry Making Training was provided to 30 disabled and their family members from Self Help Groups in Chittorgarh, the training was provided on the interest of members and demand of such jewelry in new trend market.

The training was organised at CUTS Centre for Human Development under social inclusion programme May 21 to 25 with aim to enhance opportunity for economic empowerment of person living with disabilities through self-help-groups.

This training will develop skills/capability of SHGs members and will become self-dependent, self-esteem to get employment. Bharti Soni, master trainer delivered the practical session on i.e. Understanding the art of jewelry making, selection/type of jewelry materials and quality finishing, various kind of jewelry, developing skill to entrepreneur and sustainable business.

Nilesh Kanted, Chief Bureau, Rajasthan Patrika, Arvind Purohit, Financial Literacy Coordinator, Bank of Baroda, Rani Jain, Coordinator, RSLDC were the speakers have encouraged the trainees to start entrepreneurship activity

