

Artificial Jewellery Making Training at Nimbahera

Artificial training has been organised with Disabled members from Three Self Help Groups in Nimbahera Block under Sightsavers Social Inclusion Programme, provided on the interest of members and demand of such jewellery in new trend market.

The training has been conducted at Shree Sanwaliya Ji Vishranti Grah, Nimbahera from June 19-23 with aim to enhance opportunity for economic empowerment of person living with disabilities through self-help-groups. This training will develop skills/capability of SHGs members and will become self-dependent, self-esteem to get employment or starting the entrepreneurship activity

Ms. Bharti Soni, Master Trainer has delivering various practical sessions on i.e Understanding the art of jewellery making, selection/type of jewellery materials and quality finishing, various kind of jewellery, developing skill to entrepreneur and sustainable business.

The CUTS staff encouraged the trainees to start entrepreneurship activity after completing the training. Total 42 members attended.

