

Sarpanch & VDOs Training at Gangad Talai

14 February 2020

On 14 February 2020, One day Sarpanch & Village Development officers training organized at Krishna Hotel Amlipada Sajjangarh under Child Rights in Rajasthan project. Total 80 participants along with 24 Sarpanch, 25 Village Development Officers were attended in one day training. The objectives of the training were-

- Sensitization on child rights.
- Increasing knowledge on role and responsibilities in PLCPC
- Informing social security schemes special children related schemes.

One day Sarpanch training was started with welcome address by Gauhar Mahmood, Assistant Director CUTS International. Brief information was given about objective and expected outcome of training and requested to all participants for actively participation in training. Brief introduction was given about CUTS organization. After the welcome address Mr. Suraj Mal Makwana requested to all participants for giving their introduction and expectations from training. All participants gave their introduction. After the introduction Mr. Madan Lal Keer, Project Manager gave information about Child Rights in Rajasthan project objectives and proposed activities in detail. Mr. Kishandas briefed about activities done by organization under CRR project.

First session was taken by Mr. Mohan Lal Meghwal on Integrated Child Protection Services and structure. Detail information given through PPT on DCPU, BLCP and PLCPC. Mr. Mohan Lal Meghwal gave information about role and responsibility of PLCPC members. Detail information was given about role and responsibility of PLCPC chairperson. Next session was taken by Mr. Nanu Lal Rout, Social Security Officer, Department of Social Justice and Empowerment. Detail information was given about Social security schemes and required documents. He also informed about application submitting process. He gave information on main schemes relating to children i.e. Palanhar Yojna, Aapki Beti Yojna, Shubh Shakti Yojna etc. He also covered other important schemes during the session.

Welcome session was held during the training for newly elected Sarpanch. All Sarpanch invited at stage and welcome them through Flower garland and congratulation letter given to each Sarpanch by Block Development officer Mr. Jagdish Prasad Sharma and Gauhar Mahmood, Assistant Director CUTS International. Block Development officer Mr. Jagdish Prasad Sharma told that children are the valuable assets of our country; it is our responsibility to ensure their rights. He requested to all participants for actively participation in PLCPC in their village. Next planning was share by Mr. Laxman Lal Damor and vote of thanks was given by Surekha Bhuriya.

-----