

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Success Case Study 1

Child or Beneficiary's name	Mrs. Durga Maida
District and State	Village – Patapor, Gram Panchyat Andeshwar, Tehsil – Sajjangarh, District – Banswara
Age	28 years
Sex	Female
Current context	Mrs. Durga Maida is a 28-years-old widow woman is living at Patapor village in Sajjangarh block. She has lost her husband in young life, now she is living with her 6 year old daughter ms Hansa Kumari at her village. Durga Devi has not sufficient agriculture so gets a widow pension as well as living her life as a daily wage labour. A resident of Patapor Village, Durga lives with her six year old gaughter. Her husband was dead 3 year ago. Her daughter got admission in first standard last year but not aware about Palanhar scheme. He is getting difficulties in look after of the her daughter due to being a daily wage labour as well as facing a lot of difficulty in other expanses of her home.
Their story	Last year Panchyat Level Child Protection Committee (PLCPC) formed at Andeshwar village under Child Rights in Rajasthan Project. Role and responsibilities were discussed during the PLCPC training and meetings. Detail information was also given to PLCPC member on various social protection schemes and form submission process. Mrs. Neeru devi, PLCPC member attend PLCPC meeting and informed to cluster coordinator Mr. Indrajeet Dodiya that a 28 year old widow woman is living at her village and getting difficulty to look after her family. She has a six year old daughter and getting widow pension but not aware about Palanhar scheme. Cluster Coordinator Mr. Indrajeet Dodiya also visited at Durga devi home and met with Durga Devi. Mrs. Durga Devi informed that only she is getting widow pension and not any other source of family income. Mr. Indrajeet Dodiya informed to her about Palanhar scheme and detail information was also given to her about application submitting process. He suggested to her to receive help to Neeru Devi, if she get any difficulty during submitting Palanhar scheme application. On 30 July 2020 Mrs. Neerudevi went at Emitra center with Durgadevi and success in submitting palanhar scheme application. After some time, amount was deposited in her account under the Palanhar scheme by the government.

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Their views :	“Only widow pension was main source of family income sometimes daily wage work was also available in her village. In this situation I was struggling to bear the expenses of the family. Now I will provide best education to my daughter for her bright future.”
Comment from the family, the Program Officer, Community Based Organization	“Rural people are not aware about social security schemes, due to lack of required information and documents; many people are deprived of social security schemes. With the active involvement PLCPC Member Durga Devi was success in getting the Palanhar scheme benefits.” - Indrajeet Dodiya, Cluster Coordinator, Child Rights In Rajasthan.
Background information on Save the Children project they’ve been involved with	The Child Rights in Rajasthan Project supported by Save the Children-Bal Raksha Bharat, covered 68 Gram Panchyats ; consists 33 GPs in Sajjangarh and 24 GPs in Gangad Talai Blocks of Banswara. The project aims for significant reduction in vulnerable of children especially child labour and migration. The intervention aims to ensure effective workforce development of personnel of Panchayat level child protection committee. The envisage impact of the intervention is to have strengthened and child protection system in the districts with a vision of prompt action and reduced vulnerability of children for moving towards child labour free Banswara.
Link to strategic objectives
Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated)

Mrs. Durga Maida with her daughter

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Successful case study 2

Name (Child, beneficiary, structure, community groups)	Mrs. Geeta w/o Late Raman Lal, Scheduled Tribe,
Village, District and State	Gram Panchayat: Amariyapada, Ghodiya, Post Saliya (Shergarh) Tehsil: Gangad talai, District, Banswara, Rajasthan
Age and Sex (In case of child or individual information)	Geeta, Female, 57 years, Have one daughter and four son. Gauri Kumari.11 Bansilal 22, Kalepesh 19. Kaluram 13. Jargul 9.
Current context	Geeta's husband was died four year before due to long illness. After the death of Husband, all the responsibility of family members fell on her. Due to her husband death, her economic condition became weaker, because he was the sole earner in her family. She was full depend on the agriculture land to take care of their four children and also gone outside for doing domestic chores and begging work. A contact made to Sarpanch and Village development officer of Gram Panchayat and asked to help her for applying widow pension after stating the widow pension, later applied for palanhaar scheme, but her son left the school and started to help her mother in home chores and after he went for labour work to help in their brother and sister education
Their story	She is head of the family so, she go to outside for work, she was getting the pension whereas her palanhaar benefits was not coming due to incomplete documents on portal. Due to not getting the amount of palanhaar for last one year, she was in difficult situation and now solely depends on widow pension only. In absence of palanhaar benefits, she could not being managed the family well.
Their views:	She says that is very thankful to CUTS and Save the Children to get the long pending 36000 amount under palanhaar scheme and all family members are very happy to get this amount, this amount is very important during this COVID-19 to care her family well. I am delighted to start once again palanhaar scheme which will be useful for providing the food, clothes, care and education to my children. This scheme will be beneficial for family to get continue and quality education, now I am committed to give them a better education.
Comment from the family, the Program Officer, Community Based Organization	Her children says, is very happy to get the financial support through palanhaar scheme, now we will continue our education. CUTS and Save the Children identified her during the vulnerability

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

	assessment survey and provided the information about the benefits of the schemes and also helped her to avail the benefits of palanhaar now her familit lives become easier to provide them education to children and care of family. The project team says, after doing vulnerability assessment survey, she was eligible for some welfare scheme including palanhaar , After palanhaar benefits, she is giving sufficient time to her children, careful for their education and have some dream to make them self-reliant. The worker says that the PLCPC members should be responsible to linkage their all eligible families with palanhar schemes to improve their social and economic condition and should continue the awareness in community about all government welfare schemes.
Background information on Save the Children project they've been involved with	The Child rights for change in Rajasthan project is implementing by CUTS with support from Save the Children and under the project formed Gram Panchayat Level Child Protection Committees to reach out the vulnerable children and their families to benefit them from social security schemes like Palanhar and many more. The project team members met ward member of PLCPC, Amariyapada gave the information about the various schemes and identified families who were eligible for schemes, the PLCPC member collected the documents and filled application form of Geeta and her all required document were uploaded by e-mitra facility and after some time got all pending amount of palanhaar schemes.
Link to strategic objectives
Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated

Gauri Kumari, Kaluram & Kalepesh

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Success story 3

Child or Beneficiary's name	Mrs. Laxmi Garisiya
District and State	Village – Jalimpura, Tehsil – Sajjangarh, District – Banswara
Age	40 years
Sex	Female
Current context	Mr. Laxmi Devi, is a 40-years-old women who has encountered many hardships in her marriage life but remains undeterred in her spirit. A resident of Jalimpura Village, Laxmi Devi lives with her four children, a younger daughter is 15 year old and last child is 4 year old. A resident of Jalimpura Village, Laxmi lives with her four children. Her husband was dead so she was getting difficulty to look after of her children. Her Children are studying in government school but Irregular. He is facing difficulties in look after of the family members due to being a daily wage labour as well as facing a lot of difficulty in teaching his son to the son regularly.
Their story	Last year Panchyat Level Child Protection Committee (PLCPC) formed at Jalimpura village under Child Rights in Rajasthan Project. Role and responsibilities were discussed during the PLCPC training and meetings. Detail information was also discussed on various social protection schemes and form submission process. Mr. Bhavji Bhai PLCPC member also attended in PLCPC meeting. He informed to cluster coordinator Mr. Gajendra Sing Garasiya that a 40 year old widow woman is living at her village and getting difficulty to look after her family. She is not getting widow pension. Cluster Coordinator Mr. Gajendra Garasiya also visited at her home and discussed about her problem. Her family status is not good. She is getting difficulty to look after of her family. Cluster coordinator suggested to her to collect required documents and attend upcoming social protection camp. Mrs. Laxmi Garasiya was attended in Social protection camp and submitted her widow pension form. After some time her widow pension started. Her confidence was increased and starts sending her children at school on regularly. After some time she also submitted Palanhar scheme form at E-

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

	mitra centre with help of cluster coordinator. After some time, ₹ 8000 lump sum was deposited in his account under the Palanhar scheme by the government.
Their views :	“Earlier, I had to borrow such expenses from others in lookafter of my family and teaching the children, now I am very happy to get such amount together, I will be able to providing education the children well.” - Laxmi Garasiya, Jalimpura
Comment from the family, the Program Officer, Community Based Organization	“There is a lack of information about the social security schemes among the villagers, due to lack of required information; many people are deprived of government schemes. With the active support of PLCPC Member, Laxmi was success in getting widow pension and Palanhar scheme benefits.” - Gajendra Garasiya, Cluster Coordinator, Child Rights in Rajasthan Project.
Background information on Save the Children project they’ve been involved with	The Child Rights in Rajasthan Project supported by Save the Children- Bal Raksha Bharat, covered 68 Gram Panchyats ; consists 33 GPs in Sajjanganrh and 24 GPs in Gangad Talai Blocks of Banswara. The project aims for significant reduction in vulnerable of children especially child labour and migration. The intervention aims to ensure effective workforce development of personnel of Pancahyat level child protection committee. The envisage impact of the intervention is to have strengthened and child protection system in the districts with a vision of prompt action and reduced vulnerability of children for moving towards child labour free Banswara.
Link to strategic objectives
Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated)

Mrs. Laxmi Garasiya with her Children

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Success story 4

Child or Beneficiary's name	Mrs. Lalita devi
District and State	Village – Lankai, Tehsil – Gangadtalai, District – Banswara
Age	49 years
Sex	Female
Current context	Suni Devi, is a 49-years-old women who has lost her husband even before she had completed 42 years of her young life. A resident of Lankai Village, Lalita Devi lives with her two children at her village. Her husband was dead seven years ago. Her son and daughter are studying in government school. She is getting only widow pension. He is facing difficulties in look after of her children due to being a daily wage labour as well as facing a lot of difficulty in teaching her children regularly.
Their story	Last year Panchyat Level Child Protection Committee (PLCPC) formed at Lankai village under Child Rights in Rajasthan Project. Role and responsibilities were discussed during the PLCPC training and meetings. Detail information was also given to PLCPC member on various social protection schemes and form submission process. Mrs. Lalita Devi contacted during the home visit. She informed that her husband was dead 7 year ago and now she is living at her village with her two children. She is getting only widow pension. Cluster Coordinator Surekha Bhuriya informed to her about Palanhar scheme and detail information was given to her about required documents and online application submitting process. Mrs. Lalita Devi reached at Social protection camp which was held in colobration with PLCPC and CUTS. Her Bhamashah card was not updated so her Bhamashah card updating process was done during the Social Protection camp. After some months she was came in next camp and online application was submitted successfully. After some time, her Palanhar scheme amount was deposited in his account under the Palanhar scheme by the government.
Their views :	“Earlier, I had to borrow such expenses from others in look after of my family and teaching the children, now I am very happy to get such amount together; I will be able to providing education

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

	the children well. There will be no need to take money from others.”
Comment from the family, the Program Officer, Community Based Organization	“There is a lack of information about the social security schemes among the villagers, due to lack of required information; many people are deprived of government schemes. With the active support of local PLCPC, Lalita Devi was success in getting the Palanhar scheme benefits.” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Surekha, Cluster Coordinator, Child Rights in Rajasthan Project.
Background information on Save the Children project they’ve been involved with	The Child Rights in Rajasthan Project supported by Save the Children- Bal Raksha Bharat, covered 68 Gram Panchyats ; consists 33 GPs in Sajjangarh and 24 GPs in Gangad Talai Blocks of Banswara. The project aims for significant reduction in vulnerable of children especially child labour and migration. The intervention aims to ensure effective workforce development of personnel of Panchayat level child protection committee. The envisage impact of the intervention is to have strengthened and child protection system in the districts with a vision of prompt action and reduced vulnerability of children for moving towards child labour free Banswara.
Link to strategic objectives

Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated)

Mrs. Lalitadevi with her both children at Lankai village

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Success story 5

Child or Beneficiary's name	Mrs. Manjula Devi
District and State	Village – Zer Moti, Tehsil – Gangadtalai, District – Banswara
Age	49 years
Sex	Female
Current context	Manjula, is a 49 years-old women who has lost her husband in young life, but she did not lose courage, she decided to better look after of her children. A resident of Zer Moti Village, Manjula lives with her son and daughter at her village. She has only 2 bigha agriculture land so she depended on daily wage labour work. She has not receiving any government scheme. Her both children are regular studying at government school at her village. He is facing difficulties in look after of the children due to being a daily wage labour as well as facing a lot of difficulty in teaching her children regularly.
Their story	Last year Panchyat Level Child Protection Committee (PLCPC) formed at Zer Moti village under Child Rights in Rajasthan Project. Role and responsibilities were discussed during the PLCPC training and meetings. Detail information was also given to PLCPC member on various social protection schemes and form submission process. Mrs. Sunesh Chandra Garasiya, PLCPC chairperson and Sarpanch of Gram Panchyat Zer Moti informed to cluster coordinator Mrs. Surekha Bhuriya that a 49 year old widow woman is living at his Gram Panchyat and getting difficulty in look after of her children. When she goes to labour work, her children keep wandering here and there, if there is any good shelter home for these children. Surekha Bhuria visited at her home and met with Manjula devi. Manjula devi said that when she goes to labour work, her children are all alone at home, so it would be good if they get admission in a good place. Surekha told that there is a good shelter home for children in Banswara where there can be a good arrangement for these children. The woman agreed to provide shelter to her both children. During the month of September 2019 Surekha Bhuriya visited at Banswara with children (Pinal and Anand) along with her mother and presented the children to the Child Protection Committee. Madhusudan

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

	Vyas, Member of the Child Protection Committee, allowed these children to be provided shelter to children. Both the children are currently staying at shelter home and getting good education. Now Manjula devi is also happy and can also come easily to work anywhere without any worry.
Their views :	“Earlier, I was getting difficulty to look after of my children, now I am very happy to provide shelter to children with help of PLCPC; I am able to work for bright future of my children and easily go for labour work without any fear.”
Comment from the family, the Program Officer, Community Based Organization	“Financial condition of Manjula Devi was not good. When she wanted to go to labour work, then children used to worry about children all the time, now children are getting good education at Banswara with staying in shelter home, so children and their mother is happy.” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Surekha Bhuriya, Cluster Coordinator, Child Rights in Rajasthan Project.
Background information on Save the Children project they’ve been involved with	The Child Rights in Rajasthan Project supported by Save the Children-Bal Raksha Bharat covered 68 Gram Panchyats; consists 33 GPs in Sajjangarh and 24 GPs in Gangad Talai Blocks of Banswara. The project aims for significant reduction in vulnerable of children especially child labour and migration. The intervention aims to ensure effective workforce development of personnel of Panchahyat level child protection committee. The envisage impact of the intervention is to have strengthened and child protection system in the districts with a vision of prompt action and reduced vulnerability of children for moving towards child labour free Banswara.
Link to strategic objectives
Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated)

Children was presented in front of CWC

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Success story 6

Child or Beneficiary's name	Mrs. Suni Machhar
District and State	Village – Charkani, Tehsil – Gangadtalai, District – Banswara
Age	52 years
Sex	Female
Current context	Suni Devi, is a 52-years-old women who has lost her life partner even before she had completed 40 years of her young life, but she did not lose courage, she decided to better look after of her children. A resident of Charkani Village, Suni lives with her son at her village. Her husband was dead 12 year ago. Her son studying in government school so she was gets widow pension as well as Palanhar. Last three years she has not receiving Palanhar pension and she not aware about reason of denied palanhar pension. She went at Gram Panchayat but not success in restart her Palanhar pension. He is facing difficulties in look after of the family members due to being a daily wage labour as well as facing a lot of difficulty in teaching her son regularly.
Their story	Last year Panchyat Level Child Protection Committee (PLCPC) formed at Charkani village under Child Rights in Rajasthan Project. Role and responsibilities were discussed during the PLCPC training and meetings. Detail information was also given to PLCPC member on various social protection schemes and form submission process. Mrs. Ramila Damor Ward Panch attend PLCPC meeting and informed to cluster coordinator Mr. Kishan das that a 52 year old widow is living at her village and getting difficulty to look after her family. She is not getting Palanhar pension last three years due to unknown reason. After the PLCPC meeting Cluster Coordinator Mr. Kishan Das visited at Suni home and discussed about her problem. She also informed about delaying Palanhar pension last three years. Cluster coordinator suggested to her to visiting at school and receive regular studing certificate and attend upcoming social protection camp. Mrs. Suni visited at school with her son and request to school headmaster for issuing Study certificate of her son. Her son is regular student so headmaster provided Study certificate without any delayed. On 29 February 2020 a Social protection camp was held at Charkani village with support local PLCPC. Total 13 persons got benefited of this camp. Mrs Sunidevi Machhar was also presented during the camp and she submitted her required documents with help of cluster coordinator. After

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

	some time, ₹ 12000 lump sum was deposited in his account under the Palanhar scheme by the government.
Their views :	“Earlier, I had to borrow such expenses from others in look after of my family and teaching the children, now I am very happy to get such amount together; I will be able to providing education the children well. There will be no need to take money from others.”
Comment from the family, the Program Officer, Community Based Organization	“There is a lack of information about the social security schemes among the villagers, due to lack of required information; many people are deprived of government schemes. With the active support of Ward Panch (PLCPC Member), Soni Devi was success in getting the Palanhar scheme benefits.” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kishan Das, Cluster Coordinator, Child Rights in Rajasthan Project.
Background information on Save the Children project they've been involved with	The Child Rights in Rajasthan Project supported by Save the Children- Bal Raksha Bharat, covered 68 Gram Panchyats ; consists 33 GPs in Sajjanganrh and 24 GPs in Gangad Talai Blocks of Banswara. The project aims for significant reduction in vulnerable of children especially child labour and migration. The intervention aims to ensure effective workforce development of personnel of Pancahyat level child protection committee. The envisage impact of the intervention is to have strengthened and child protection system in the districts with a vision of prompt action and reduced vulnerability of children for moving towards child labour free Banswara.
Link to strategic objectives
Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated

Mrs. Suni devi with her son

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Success story 7

Name (Child, beneficiary, structure, community groups)	Mrs. Varjudi Katara, Bhil community (Scheduled Tribes)
Village, District and State	Gram Panchayat: Gadhediya, Ram Ka Munna Tehsil: Gangad talai, District, Banswara, Rajasthan
Age and Sex (In case of child or individual information)	Varjudi, Female, 52 years, Have two daughters and one son.
Current context	Varjudi is poor and widow women, she is 52 years old, her husband died 04 years ago, After the death of Husband, all the responsibility of family members fell on her. Due to her husband death, her economical condition became more weak, because he was the sole earner in her family, It was very difficult to manage the family without her husband, Due to economical weak condition , her two children Rekha and Mahesh were in class third and eight standard, they discontinued school , only Manisha was studying Varjudi was getting only the widow pension, which was not sufficient for all family care. she was in difficult life and facing many problem due to low income of family, She was not aware about the palanhar scheme
Their story	She is head of the family so, she go to outside for work, their children stays home, due to poorness she was no serious for education, as her priority was to give basic need like food, clothes and shelter.
Their views:	She says that is very thankful to CUTS and Save the Children to awared them about the palanhar scheme and subsequently provided me the benefits through social protection camp, I am delighted that this 4000 rupee money will be useful for providing the food, clothes, care and education to my children. This scheme will be beneficial for family to get continue and quality education, now I have planned to give her a higher education and I am also expect that this scheme will reach to other vulnerable families who immense need to rise their families though this programme
Comment from the family, the Program Officer, Community Based Organization	Manisha, her daughter says she is very happy to get the financial support for my education, now I will continue my education and will become a teacher and wil assist to family. CUTS and Save the Children provided the information about the benefits of the schemes and also helped them to avail the benefits of palanhaar now their lives become easier to provide them education to children and care of family. The project team says, after getting the palanhaar , she is giving

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

	sufficient time to her children, careful for their education and have some dream to make them self-reliant. The worker says that the PLCPC members should be responsible to linkage their all eligible families with palanhar schemes to improve their social and economic condition and should continue the awareness in community about all government welfare schemes.
Background information on Save the Children project they've been involved with	The Child rights for change in Rajasthan project is implementing by CUTS with support from Save the Children and under the project formed Gram Panchayat Level Child Protection Committees to reach out the vulnerable children and their families to benefit them from social security schemes like Palanhar and many more. The project team members met ward member of PLCPC, Charkni gave the information about the various schemes and identified families who were eligible for schemes, the PLCPC member collected the documents and filled application form of Mrs Vajudi. The team informed about the palanhar schemes' criteria, process, benefits and asked her to bring all necessary documents in social protection camp, the camp was held on 29 February 2020 and her all required document were uploaded by e-mitra facility.
Link to strategic objectives
Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated)

Varjudi Katara with her daughter at her home

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Success story 8

Name (Child, beneficiary, structure, community groups)	Mrs. Hooki w/o Late Jagmal Garasia, Scheduled Tribe,
Village, District and State	Village: Kalakhunta, Gram Panchayat: Sagwa Tehsil: Sajjangarh, District, Banswara, Rajasthan
Age and Sex (In case of child or individual information)	Hooki, Female, Have one son and three daughter. . Gauri Kumari.11 Bansilal 22, Kalepesh 19. Kaluram 13. Jargul 9.
Current context	Hooki's husband was died four year before due to illness. After the death of Husband, all the responsibility of family members fell on her, Due to her husband death, her economic condition became weaker, because her husband was the bread earner in family. She was full depend on the small agriculture land to take care of their four children and also gone outside for doing labour work. Due to poorness, her two children left the education to support her mother in home chores and doing agriculture work. But her two daughters Pushpa and Guddi were studying in government school, she was getting only widow pension but not aware about the Palanhaar scheme. A contact made to Sarpanch, head PLCPC to help her for applying palanhaar scheme and provided all necessary information and support.
Their story	She is head of the family so, she go to outside for work, she was getting the pension whereas her palanhaar benefit was not availing due to un aware about the scheme. she was in difficult situation and now solely depend on widow pension only. In absence of palanhaar benefits, she could not being managed the family well.
Their views:	She says that is very thankful to CUTS and Save the Children to linkage with palanhaar scheme, this amount is very important will be helpful to care her family well, I will give continue education to my children and will make them a good citizen.
Comment from the family, the Program Officer, Community Based Organization	Her children says, is very happy to linkaged with palanhaar scheme, now we will continue our education and will get respect job to support the family further. CUTS and Save the Children identified her during the vulnerability assessment survey and provided the information about the benefits of the schemes and also helped her to avail the benefits of palanhaar now her family are happy to linkage them with schemes and says their lives will become easier to provide them education to children and care of family. The project team says, after doing vulnerability assessment survey,

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

	she was identified, After palanhaar benefits, she will be more careful for their children education and have some dream to make them self-reliant. The worker says that the PLCPC members should be responsible to linkage their all eligible families with palanhaar schemes in their areas to improve their social and economic condition and should continue the awareness in community about all government welfare schemes particularly Palanhaar
Background information on Save the Children project they've been involved with	The Child rights for change in Rajasthan project is implementing by CUTS with support from Save the Children and under the project formed Gram Panchayat Level Child Protection Committees to reach out the vulnerable children and their families to benefit them from social security schemes like Palanhaar and many more. The project team members met ward panch, a member of PLCPC, Sagwa gave the information about the palanhaar scheme, and asked to linkage the woman with scheme, the Ward member collected the documents and filled application form of Hooki and all required document were uploaded by e-mitra facility and after some time her daughter Pushpa linkage with palanhaar scheme and Guddi application is under process, as she have not unique identity card, her aadhar card have been applied also, once will get the aadhar card , her form will submit to avail the palanhaar benefit.
Link to strategic objectives
Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated)

Hooki Garasia with her daughters at her home

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Success story 9

Name (Child, beneficiary, structure, community groups)	Mrs. Nahati (Have three daughters are Janta, Kavina, Twinkle) from Scheduled Tribes community (ST)
Village, District and State	Village: Rupgarh, Gram Panchayat: Jalimpura, Tehsil: Sajjangarh, District, Banswara, Rajasthan
Age and Sex (In case of child or individual information)	Nahati, Female, 40 years. Janta, Female, 16 years. Kavina, Female, 23 years. Twinkle, Female, 11 years.
Current context	Nahati is poor and widow women, she is 40 years old, her husband died due to some circumstance reason. After the death of Husband, all the responsibility of family member's livelihoods went to her. Due to her husband death, her economic condition became weak, and she has only 2 Bigha arid agriculture land, was not sufficient for family survival, she was in tense and not sending their children regular in school, about 15-20 days children stayed home to help in domestic work when she go outside for work. Nahati was not getting the widow pension and Palanhar scheme (caregiver scheme) is a monthly cash transfer programme of Rajasthan government to nurture, educate and provide health care to orphans and other vulnerable children in a family setting.) because she was not aware about these welfare schemes.
Their story	She is head of the family so, she go to outside for work, their children stays home, due to poorness she was no serious for education, children were irregular in school, some time they also go outside with her mother for work.
Their views:	After a good financial support from Widow pension and Palanhar schemes, I am now more able to take care of the family, provide them good food, clothes, health and education, She says that is very thankful to CUTS and Save the Children to aware them about education, linkage me with widow and palanhaar schemes, which are very helpful to support my family for our better lives.
Comment from the family, the Program Officer, Community Based Organization	Nahati says she is very happy to get the financial support from government schemes; it could be possible by CUTS and Save the Children that they gave me the information about the benefits of the schemes and also helped me to avail the widow pension and palanhaar, my life become easy as Iam getting this financial support. The team of the project says, after getting the widow pension and palanhaar , she giving sufficient time to her children and careful for their education also
Background information on Save the Children project	The Child rights for the change in Rajasthan project is implementing by CUTS with support from Save the Children and under the project formed Panchayat Level Child Protection Committee to reach out the

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

they've been involved with	vulnerable children and their families to benefit them from social security schemes. To reach out these kind of vulnerable families we organised a social protection camp involving PLCPC members in their Gram Panchayat. The project team members gave the information about the various schemes to vulnerable families including Mrs Nahati, The team informed about the widow pension and palanhar schemes' criteria, process, benefits and asked her to bring all necessary documents in social protection camp, She brought all documents and the team supports her to apply her application online through e-mitra. After all checks, her required documents uploaded online to get the widow pension, after some time her pension was started of Rs 500 per month and later her palanhaar of also started.
Link to strategic objectives
Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated)

Nahati with her daughters

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Success story 10

Name (Child, beneficiary, structure, community groups)	Mrs. Pushpa Panchal (Have one daughter Harshlat and One Son, Dishant) from Other Backsward Community (OBC)
Village, District and State	Gram Panchayat: Sajjnagarh Tehsil: Sajjanganrh, District, Banswara, Rajasthan
Age and Sex (In case of child or individual information)	Pushpa, Female, 54 years Harshlat Female, 18 years. Dishant, Male, 14 years.
Current context	Pushpa is poor and widow women, she is 45 years old, she has not own house, living as a tenant, her husband was disabled person and he died after some illness. After the death of Husband, all the responsibility of family members fell on her. Due to her husband death, her economic condition became more weak, and she has only small grocery shop, was not sufficient for family survival, she was in difficult life and surviving family with hard time, she was not getting the widow pension and Palanhar scheme ((caregiver scheme) is a monthly cash transfer programme of Rajasthan government to nurture, educate and provide health care to orphans and other vulnerable children in a family setting.) because she was not aware about these welfare schemes and also not confident to go outside to avail the schemes, However her husband applied for palanhaar scheme when he was alive, but due to incomplete document, the palanhaar scheme amount was not transferring her bank account.
Their story	She is head of the family so, she go to outside for grocery purchase, their children stays home, due to poorness she was no serious for education, children were not regular in school and not have any future planning about their career.
Their views:	After a good financial support from Widow pension and Palanhar schemes, I am now more able to takecare of the family, committed to provide them good food, clothes , health and education and want to expend the grocery work. She says that is very thankful to CUTS and Save the Children to aware them about education, submitted all documents for releasing the pending amount of palanhaar schemes since long time, which are very helpful to support my family for our better lives.
Comment from the family, the Program	Pushpa says she is very happy to get the financial support from government schemes, it could be possible by CUTS and Save the

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.

Officer, Community Based Organization	Children that they gave me the information about the benefits of the schemes and also helped me to avail the widow pension and release the pending amount of palanhaar and also applied fresh application for palanhaar benefits, my life become easy as I am getting this financial support from two schemes. The team of the project says, after getting the widow pension and palanhaar , she giving sufficient time to her children, careful for their education and also interested to increase the grocery shop work
Background information on Save the Children project they've been involved with	The Child rights for the change in Rajasthan project is implementing by CUTS with support from Save the Children and under the project formed Panchayat Level Child Protection Committee to reach out the vulnerable children and their families to benefit them from social security schemes. The project team members gave the information about the various schemes to vulnerable families including Mrs Pushpa Panchal The team informed about the widow pension and palanhaar schemes' criteria, process, benefits and asked her to bring all necessary documents in social protection camp, She brought all documents and the team supports her to apply an fresh application online through e-mitra in her name and uploaded all necessary documents. Before the palanhaar application was applied in the name of her husband IDs, due to his death, this ID was stopped and all stuck amount in the name of her husband released after resolve the matter with social justice and empowerment department. After all checks, her required documents uploaded online to get the widow pension, after some time her pension was started and later her palanhaar of also started with her ID after uploaded following documents such as application, photos, Unique ID, Bhamashah card, bank passbook, death certificate and school certificates
Link to strategic objectives
Include photograph with details (location, date, what activity is being demonstrated)

Mrs. Pushpa Panchal with her

CUTS CENTRE FOR HUMAN DEVELOPEMNT.