

Observed World Consumer Rights Day

CUTS Centre for Human Development observed World Consumer Rights Day at Chittorgarh, Bhilwara districts and Rawatbhata Shahpur blocks on theme of “Trusted Smart Products” today on March 15, 2019 with an aim to promote basic rights of consumers and to ensure that these rights are respected and protected. Mr. M L Salvi, Financial Literacy Coordinator, Bank of Baroda, Mr Goverdhan Sharma, Mr. Vishnu Kumar, Mr. G. Solanki, Gauhar Mahmood, Madan Giri , Mohan Meghwal briefed about the consumers rights and responsibilities and informed that this day called for access to secure internet for all. The smart products are like smartphones, TVs, health trackers, thermostats and many of the other smart products are increasingly becoming connected by default.

They highlighted what consumers need from a connected world and how important it is for them to know about these digital products and services. The speaker spoke that consumers should uptake of more and more smart products in steadily growing day-by-day, it is important for them to understand the issues of security, and privacy. Total 52 Consumers including the students, representatives from consumers based organisation, members from disabled people organisation, villagers came together to celebrated WCRD.

2nd event of International Women’s Day observed at Rawatbhata blocks of Chittorgarh and Jahajpur Bhilwara districts respectively with an aim to promote basic rights of consumers and to ensure that these rights are respected and protected. Ramraj Meena, BDO Jahajpur, Pukharaj Nahar, FLC Coordinator BOB Bank, DS Meena, Branch manager BOB Jahajpur briefed about the consumers rights and responsibilities and informed that this day called for access to secure internet for all. The smart products are like smartphones, TVs, health trackers, thermostats and many of the other smart products are increasingly becoming connected by default. Total 60 participants attended the event.

